www.langtp.com T: 023 9249 7000

I am committed to ensuring as far as is reasonably practicable the health, safety and welfare of all employees, temporary workers and members of the public who may be affected by our work activities. Furthermore personnel using Fasset managed establishments must be assured that their health, safety and welfare is at the forefront of our drive for excellence in all services we provide.

Employees are encouraged to constantly challenge the 'Health and Safety Management System' in order to ensure continual development and improvement, the prevention of ill health and injury remaining the priority at all times.

Managers have personal responsibility for the health, safety and welfare of all those under their control, including visitors to their department. All employees have responsibility for the health and safety of themselves and all others who their acts or omissions could affect.

Fasset will:

- Comply with all relevant statutory requirements for health, safety and welfare.
- Establish specific health and safety objectives and measure performance against these objectives on a regular basis.
- Consult with personnel at all levels - management and workforce - in order to improve the health and safety culture throughout all areas of the company.
- Ensure that equipment provided for use in the workplace, is suitable and appropriately maintained to ensure its safe condition at all times.
- Ensure suitable methods for the handling, storage and movement of materials and substances are maintained.
- Provide a safe place of work including access to, and egress from, for all personnel required to enter areas under its control.
- Implement safe systems of work for all work activities conducted.
- Provide and maintain a working environment that is safe and without risks to the health and safety of all employees, contractors, temporary workers, customers, members of the public and visitors.
- Actively promote safety awareness within the company including legal and personal responsibilities.
- Provide information, instruction and training, including competent supervision, to ensure the health and safety of all employees.

We all have equal responsibility for making and keeping our places of work safe, not only for ourselves but for our colleagues and all others who may be affected by our actions. Only the highest standards of health and safety will be accepted by Fasset. The co-operation and commitment of all employees is absolutely vital to ensure we succeed in meeting and sustaining the standards to which Fasset prescribe.
